

Kevin J. Cammiso

Senior Associate

E: kcammiso@kfc.law

P: (310) 409-0476

Biography

Kevin J. Cammiso is a Senior Associate at Kibler Fowler & Cave LLP. Kevin specializes in intellectual property, entertainment, and business litigation in state and federal courts.

Kevin earned his bachelor's degree in English from the University of California, Santa Barbara and his law degree from Loyola Law School, where he graduated with honors in the Intellectual Property Law Concentration. At Loyola, Kevin served as the Chief Production Editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles International & Comparative Law Review, the Team Captain of Loyola's Saul Lefkowitz Trademark Moot Court team, and the Vice President of the Intellectual Property Law Society. Kevin also worked as a research assistant to Professors F. Jay Dougherty and Jennifer E. Rothman researching issues related to music and right of publicity law, respectively. After law school, Kevin worked for John Fowler at JDF Law, P.C. as an associate attorney on a wide range of business and entertainment disputes.

Areas Of Practice

- Business Litigation
- Cannabis Litigation
- Entertainment and IP Litigation
- Real Estate Litigation

Education

- Loyola Law School, J.D., 2017
- Chief Production Editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles International & Comparative Law Review
- Team Captain of Loyola's Saul Lefkowitz Trademark Moot Court team
- University of California, Santa Barbara, B.A., English, 2013

Bar & Court Admissions

- California
- U.S. District Court, Central District of California
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of California
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of California
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of California

Speaking Engagements

- Panelist - "Careers in Entertainment Law" • Entertainment Law Practicum, Loyola Law School, April 18, 2018
- Panelist - "Students in Intellectual Property Law" • Intellectual Property Law Society, Loyola Law School, February 24, 2016